

I am totally against an Cable or Phone company being able to gain complete control over Internet Access. We should be allowed to chose any ISP that we want. I am very happy with my ISP and resent the fact that someone could tell me that I have to go with Verizon or Qwest just because of my address. Also many people would lose their job if this happens.I believe the phone and cable companies make enough money as it is, it is nothing but greed. Thank you